

Explanatory Notes on Main Statistical Indicators

Accumulated Number of Enterprises Involved in Business Inviting Programs refers to the total number of enterprises invited to development zones and awarded with business licenses for legal persons from the administration for industry and commerce from the beginning to the end of the reporting period.

Total Revenue refers to the sum of income earned by enterprises across the year from sales of their own products, technological income, and income from selling commodities related to their own products, and other income. Total revenue is the sum of main business income and other business income. Total revenue shall be calculated at VAT-excluded prices, and exclude subsidies, non-operating income and return on investment.

Total Export refers to the total amount of products, commodities, technologies or services directly sold to foreign traders. It includes the value of export of investor's raw materials processed and assembled, the value of technical contracts completed at abroad, and the total value of domestic commodity sales and technical services measured in foreign currency.

Returned Students Studying Abroad refer to persons who have come home after studying abroad and been conferred with academic degrees.